COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES AND EQUITABLE RELIEF

NOW COMES, Claimant John Woodard pursuant to rules (13) A, D & G of the Federal Rules Of Civil Procedure, moves that the court adhere to the law and hold the Plaintiffs accountable for the following list of crimes committed with assumed jurisdiction, and award the accompanying fines of 500,000 dollars per infraction in negotiable currency of the United States of America, for each felony perpetrated and 200,000 dollars for each misdemeanor pursuant to title 18 U.S.C. section 3571(c) (3),(c)(5).

Now States the Claimant,

On July 25th 2007, the plaintiff was summoned by the circuit court of Illinois to Appear in rm. 1401 of the Daley center for a court date. While in the courtroom waiting for his Case to be called, he was approached no less than four times and ordered to remove his hat, by two male and two female cook county sheriffs. The plaintiff stated that his personal Liberties protected the clothes that he wore and that no law commands an American National to remove any article of clothing. Then the commanding officer ordered the arrest Of the plaintiff for wearing his hat. 40 minutes later in the holding cell, the commanding officer Informed the rest of the sheriffs to charge me with trespassing, which is a false charge, perjury since the plaintiff was there by invitation of the court.

1. John Woodard is a United States National on file at the Cook County Recorder of Deeds, freeing him from local jurisdiction.
2. The Fifth Amendment of the United States Constitution states that, "No person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law." -Complaint, Witnesses, and Grand Jury Indictment.-
3. The Ninth Amendment of The United States Constitution states that, "The enumeration ..of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by people." The Supreme Court has found that "unenumerated rights" include the "right to travel." This fact is supported by the following case law:

(a) "The right of the citizen to travel upon public highways and to transport his/her property thereon, either by carriage or automobile, is not a mere privilege which a City/State may prohibit at will, but a common right which he/she has under the right to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness."

Thompson v. Smith 154 SE 579..

(c) "The claim and exercise of a Constitutional right cannot be converted into a crime" Miller v. U. S. 230 F 2nd 486,489.

(d) "Where rights are secured by the Constitution are involved, there can be no rule-making or legislation which would abrogate them." Miranda v. Arizona 384 US. 436,125.

4. For a crime to exist there must be an injured party. "There can be no sanction or penalty imposed on one because of this exercise of Constitutional rights." Sheer v. Cullen, 481 .945

5. A corporate entity whether it be a city or US Government, cannot testify as an injured party. As an individual one can speak for a corporation, but cannot be an injured party- as a living person of record. -In Propria Persona.-

7. Penhollow v. Doane's Administrators, states that, "All corporations are subject to men." This includes the Cook County and all its departments.

8. Respondent committed 1 count of Perjury pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 1962(a)(2).

9. Respondent committed 1 count of kidnapping pursuant to 18 U.S.C.

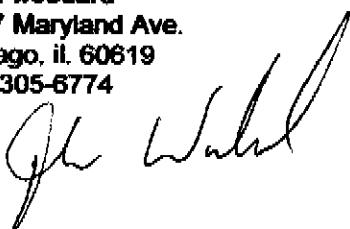

10. Respondent committed 1 count of intentional infliction of emotional distress, 18 U.S.C. 1951(b)(1). Plaintiff was held for over 50 days before the case was addressed.

11. Respondent committed 1 count of extortion pursuant to 18 U.S.C., when plaintiff was forced to pay for his freedom and personal property.

12. Respondent committed 1 count of Assault pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 1951 (b)(1).

Wherefore the claimant respectfully moves the court to uphold all federal fines for all crimes committed by the respondent , and award the claimant actual compensation with treble damages as well as compensation for the pain and suffering for the claimant.
